About Us

VISION & MISSION

To impact the world for Jesus Christ through books and media, and cater the needs of our customers by providing them with quality Christian literature at an affordable price.

The mission of our publishing house is to make an impact in the lives of people through books and media, to spread the “love of Christ” in a seeking world, to proclaim, witness and to testify God’s action and His love in the current events by producing quality literature and creative materials so that the Gospel retains the highest place.

TEAM:

Aroky Kumar and Livingstun Fedrick Williams are partners with over 10 years of experience in printing and publishing Christian literature and other books. We have five staff helping in various departments like – public relations, printing, admin & dispatch.

INCEPTION:

The verse from the Bible was our inspiration. “Your beginnings will seem humble, so prosperous will your future be.” Job 8:7

Omega Book World began in a small shop, with a very small investment. There was a great challenge to sustain and provide quality educational books. With God’s continuous help we were able to deliver quality books at affordable prices.

ABOUT US:

Omega Book World was started in the year 2011, in a 100 Sqft shop. It was registered on January 01 2013. We have now expanded to a fully functional showroom and warehouse of 1500 Sqft in the city of Bangalore, India.

Today, through networks and partnerships we have acquired a database of Sixty Thousand plus Customers in India and overseas. We also supply books to almost all the Bible Colleges, Philosophy & Theological Institutions, Pastors and Lay People (Catering all Christian denominations).

ACHIEVEMENTS:

- Obtained copyright from various International publishers (Including Bestsellers and Text books) for 80 Titles to publish and sell at subsidized price.
- Published 52 titles from Indian authors.
- Obtained sole distribution rights for Concilium: The Prestigious International Journal of Theology for India, Nepal & Sri-lanka.
- Obtained sole distribution rights for The Jerome Biblical Commentary for the Twenty First Century (Third Fully Revised Edition) for India.

50 Crucial Questions

An overview of central concerns about Manhood and Womanhood

Author : John Piper & Wayne Grudem

978-81-937008-0-8 | 98pg | Paperback | ₹150.00

“There is a desperate need for leaders of the evangelical church to speak with a wise, clear, and uncompromising biblical clarity, Piper and Grudem provide that clear voice and I pray their answers will be heard and practiced so that God’s glory will be more powerfully displayed through his grand design for men and women.”

Erik Thoennes,
Professor of Biblical and Theological Studies,
Talbot School of Theology, Biola University

A Feminist Critique of Gender Discrimination

with Special Reference to Female Sex Selective Abortion in India

Author : J. Vijayakumary

978-93-91694-15-9 | 506pg | Paperback | ₹900.00

Gender Discrimination is an issue of gender identity and social justice. It is a clear violation of the rights of the female gender and denial of human rights. Gender discrimination against a female child starts right from the womb of a mother where she is identified and terminated because of her gender. Statistical analysis reveals a decrease in the female sex ratio in various parts of India with the advancement in scientific technologies, where by the sex of the foetus can be determined even at the formative stage and destroyed mercilessly.

151 Sermons for Special Occasions

Concise Outlines for Powerful Preaching

Author : Sathesh Kumar P.K

978-81-940425-7-0 | 212pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

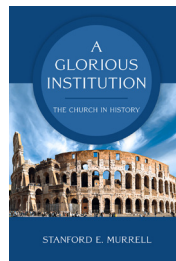

In a day of shallow sermons, this Sermon Outline Series provides original, spiritual and meaty outlines for dynamic preaching. The messages are Biblically sound and cover a great variety of subjects. The content is timeless, substantial and satisfying. These sermon sketches present a wealth of ideas and valuable guidance in the preparation of sermons by the pastor or teacher which will only serve to benefit your Bible class or congregation.

A New Kind of Apologist

Adopting Fresh Strategies | Addressing the Latest Issues |
Engaging the Culture

Author : Sean McDowell

978-81-940425-8-7 | 296pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

A New Kind of Apologist, edited by Sean McDowell and with contributions from more than 20 leading apologists, is the go-to resource for effectively defending the Christian faith in our changing culture. In it you'll discover: important topics often ignored by apologists, such as trans-gender issues, religious freedom, and the intersection of economics and apologetics a new kind of apologetics that is relational, gracious, and holistic inter views with both seasoned apologists and skeptics, providing insights into how to do apologetics effectively in today's culture.

A Theology of Peaceful Co-Existence

with Community Consciousness

Author : Jacob Mathew

978-93-89069-37-2 | 382pg | Paperback | ₹650.00

It is beyond question that 'our nation' called India today is a conglomeration of several cultures and civilizations. Historically speaking, India witnessed several conquests and conflicts, accommodating different cultural persuasions that ensued in enabling the nation to have a diverse community. Despite this diversity, India was conscious of an integrated nationality. The explicit proof of this historical reality is the great national movement for freedom, which ultimately provided a distinct identity for India as a sovereign, secular democratic nation.

A Study on the Cultic Movements

Selected New Religious Movement

Author : Koningthung Ngoruw Moyon

978-93-89069-64-8 | 460pg | Hardcover | ₹950.00

A Study on the Cultic Movements: Selected New Religious Movements is a real eye-opener. It provides great insights into the knowledge of the cultic movements. The book offers us lots of encouragement plus a number of points to be noted in relation to cultic movements. This attractively written expert account of its most representative voice should in varying degrees dispel false conceptions, surprise, expand horizon and strengthen God-given hope in a harsher climate for all the churches. I hope it is widely read

Rev. Dr. Rishikanta Sorokhaibam (PhD)
Director, V. O. C. Theological Institute-India.

Acts

A Bible Study Commentary

Author : F.F. Bruce

978-93-89069-19-8 | 238pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

This book opens our understanding of a pivotal book of the New Testament so that "you may know the truth concerning the things of which you have been informed" (Luke 1:4). The Acts of the Apostles is the second volume of the history of Christian origins by Luke, a doctor who wrote "an orderly account" of the life of Christ and the early church. The first volume is Luke's gospel.

An Introduction to the Gospel of John

Edited by: Francis J Moloney

Author : Raymond E. Brown

978-81-939006-1-1 | 384pg | Paperback | ₹900.00

An Introduction to the Gospel of John represents the culmination of Brown's long and intense examination of part of the New Testament. One of the most important aspects of this new book, particularly to the scholarly community, is how it differs from the original commentary in several important ways. It presents, for example, a new perspective on the historical development of the Gospels, and shows how Brown decided to open his work to literary readings of the text, rather than relying primarily on the historical, which informed the original volumes.

An Introduction to the Old Testament Historical Books

Author : David M Howard Jr

978-81-940425-5-6 | 450pg | Paperback | ₹695.00

Rich rewards await readers who dig deep into the historical books of the Old Testament. Incredible events, amazing love stories, larger-than-life personalities, and deep theological themes are just some of the treasures found in Joshua, Judges, Ruth, 1 & 2 Samuel, 1 & 2 Kings, 1 & 2 Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther.

These books tell the story of the nation of Israel and the God who loves her, punishes her, and always brings this recalcitrant people back to Himself. It is really the story of all of us.

An Introduction to the Old Testament

Exploring Text, Approaches & Issues

Author : John Goldingay

978-81-937008-4-6 | 396pg | Paperback | ₹900.00

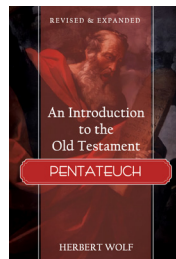

Enter the classroom of John Goldingay, one of today's premier biblical interpreters, and begin the adventure of exploring the Bible's First Testament. Some Old Testament introductions tell you what you could have seen for yourself. They might recount in detail what other scholars have said, and then tell you what you should think about it. But with refreshing directness, John Goldingay outfits you with basic knowledge, points out the main approaches, outlines the primary issues and then sets you loose to explore the terrain for yourself.

An Introduction to the Old Testament Pentateuch

Author : Herbert Wolf

978-81-940425-2-5 | 332pg | Paperback | ₹595.00

The Pentateuch—Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy—are the vital first books in the Bible. Understanding their scope, meaning, and events is integral to understanding the whole of Scripture.

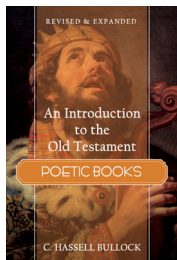

In An Introduction to the Old Testament Pentateuch, Old Testament expert

Herbert Wolf offers layreaders and scholars alike a solid introduction to the Pentateuch, going deep where he needs to while still providing a graspable overview.

An Introduction to the Old Testament Poetic Books

Author : C. Hassell Bullock

978-81-940425-4-9 | 332pg | Paperback | ₹595.00

The poetic books of the Old Testament—Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and the Song of Solomon—are often called humankind's reach toward God. The other books of the Old Testament picture God's reach toward man through the redemptive story. Yet these five books reveal the very heart of men and women struggling with monumental issues such as suffering, sin, forgiveness, joy, worship, and the passionate love between a man and woman.

Authority and Power

In Religious Life and Ecclesial Structures

Edited : Johnson J. Puthenpurackal

978-93-89069-03-7 | 198pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

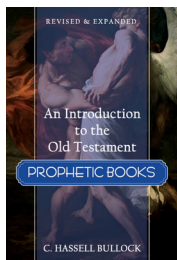

The present book is the result of an annual national seminar organized in Vijnananilayam—a regular future since a few years. Seminars are intended to be 'collective search' primarily for ourselves, and what we find in our search and research we share with others as well. Thus the ultimate purpose of such seminars and discussions is in view of making our Christian, priestly and religious life more genuine and authentic.

An Introduction to the Old Testament Prophetic Books

Author : C. Hassell Bullock

978-81-940425-3-2 | 474pg | Paperback | ₹695.00

The Old Testament prophets spoke to Israel in times of historical and moral crisis. They saw themselves as being part of a story that God was weaving throughout history—a story of repentance, encouragement, and a coming Messiah. In this updated introductory book, each major and minor prophet and his writing is clustered with the major historical events of his time.

Basics of Biblical Greek Grammar

Third Edition

Author : William D. Mounce

978-81-935964-8-7 | 442pg | Paperback | ₹1100.00

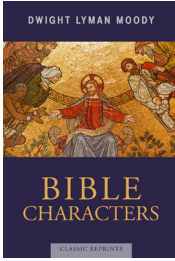

First published in 1993, Basics of Biblical Greek is the most popular introduction to the field, used in universities and seminaries around the world. Over 250,000 students have learned Biblical Greek under its guidance. This significant third edition has been carefully developed in consultation with instructors, students, self-learners, and home schoolers.

Bible Characters

Author : Dwight Lyman Moody

978-93-89069-32-7 | 340pg | Paperback | ₹600.00

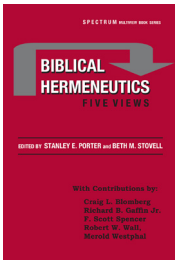

BIBLE CHARACTERS is a book written by three of the leading religious teachers of their time. Dwight L. Moody, T. DeWitt Talmage and Joseph Parker have merged their beliefs gained from many years of Bible study to present a more intimate view of many of the characters to whom we have been introduced by the Bible.

The study of Bible characters forces us to look at these men and women through the thoughts and views of many serious Bible scholars, condensed into one book by three highly respected and insightful Bible teachers.

Biblical Hermeneutics: Five Views

Edited by : Stanley E. Porter & Beth M. Stovell

978-81-937008-8-4 | 224pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

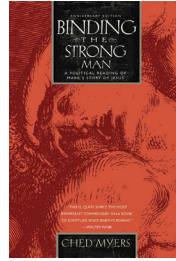

In recent decades Biblical Hermeneutics has been an ever-expanding field of thought and research, with new viewpoints unfolding and debated. The Views selected for this volume cohere with a broad center of orthodox interpretation of Scripture. But while they share a common ground and a collection of common tools, their distinctive emphases are at points profound.

Binding the Strong Man

A Political Reading of Mark's Story of Jesus

Author : Ched Myers

978-81-935964-5-6 | 530pg | Paperback | ₹950.00

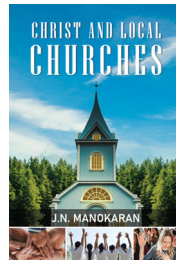

Since its publication in 1988, Binding the Strong Man has been widely recognized as a landmark in contemporary biblical criticism. Applying a multidisciplinary approach called “socio-literary method,” Myers integrates literary criticism, socio-historical exegesis, and political hermeneutics in his investigation of Mark as a “manifesto of radical discipleship.”

Christ and Local Churches

Author : J.N. Manokaran

978-93-91694-25-8 | 288pg | Paperback | ₹495.00

“Christ and Local Churches” gives a new look to the local church at large. It says that the local church is the Truth Community of all ages, from ancient world to the present modern media-soaked world. The author talks about the unique role of the pastor and the congregations; investment of laity in secular society; biblical understanding of the church; and strategic mission of the local church. The thoughts are afresh and has avoided duplicating the thoughts of other authors.

Professor of Urban Leadership, William Carey International University, CA

Christianity and Islam

Author : C.H. Becker

978-81-953966-2-7 | 64pg | Paperback | ₹175.00

A comparison of Christianity with Muhammedanism or with any other religion must be preceded by a statement of the objects with which such comparison is undertaken, for the possibilities which lie in this direction are numerous. The missionary, for instance, may consider that a knowledge of the similarities of these religions would increase the efficacy of his proselytising work: his purpose would thus be wholly practical. The ecclesiastically minded Christian, already convinced of the superiority of his own religion, will be chiefly anxious to secure scientific proof of the fact: the study of comparative religion from this point of view was once a popular branch of apologetics and is by no means out of favour at the present day.

Dispensationalism

Revised and Explained

Author : Charles C. Ryrie

978-81-937008-2-2 | 266pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

Dispensationalism continues to provoke heated debate within the Christian world. Highly acclaimed theologian Dr. Charles C. Ryrie addresses this crucial issue from the perspective of classic dispensationalism. He confronts the views of covenant theology, historical premillennialism, ultradispensationalism, and in this revised edition, the increasingly popular progressive dispensationalism.

Disability and Mephibosheth

Constructing a Theology for People with Disabilities

Author : Santosh Dan

978-93-89069-41-9 | 188pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

The book, Disability and Mephibosheth: Constructing A Theology for People with Disabilities, is actually an outcome of author's M.Th Thesis titled as "Re-reading the Narrative of Mephibosheth from the Perspective of Disability: A Theological Review". Throughout the centuries, disability has been attached with terms such as sin, curse, punishment, etc. and as a result it is evident that people with disabilities are devalued, marginalized and stigmatized by both, the Church and society. People with disabilities also face psychological, social, economical and the ecclesiastical problems and issues just because of their disabilities.

Eco-Friendly Ecclesia

A Theological Inquiry in the Context of Global of Ecological Crisis

Author : C.R. Godwin

978-81-949910-7-6 | 213pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

In the book, "Eco-Friendly Ecclesia", Rev. Dr. C.R. Godwin is an astute observer of the modern condition. Covering topics ranging from the depletion of the ozone layer to globalization and poverty, the Reverend introduces us to the theological angle of some of the greatest challenges facing the world. In these testing times, spirituality and belief can certainly be a comfort - but here, the Reverend shows, it can also act as a warning: if we are to preserve spiritual life and human well-being, we must look to take care of the world we live in.

Ecological Insights of Jesus

A Missiological Reading

Author : Thomas Mathew

978-81-949910-4-5 | 192pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

REV. THOMAS MATHEW

A Christological basis is sought by studying the significance of ecological images as found in the mission of Jesus, drawing implications for the missiological importance of ecology in Christian mission. However, in arguing for eco-justice Rev. Thomas Mathew does not lose sight of the social justice concerns, he makes both of these concerns as two sides of the same coin with sound scriptural basis thus making his presentation holistic in understanding and approach.

Education Empowerment, Emancipation

Editors: Selvaraj Arulnathan S.J,
S. Lourdunathan and E. Shujayathulla

978-93-89069-07-5 | 154pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

I strongly believe that the sincere initiatives of the research unit are bearing sustainable fruits. Young minds overwhelmingly responded and made the seminar quite successful. The discussions during the seminar-process were socially educating in the spirit of learning and unlearning. The papers presented in this volume are the result of their reflective presentations. I do wish the research unit to continue this process of 'bringing-together the young minds' to reflect and respond to the imperative of education as empowerment for emancipation.

English Bible Translations

By What Standard?

Author : William O. Einwechter

978-93-89069-36-5 | 68pg | Paperback | ₹175.00

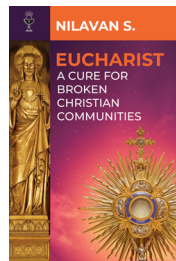

English Bible Translations challenges our complacency toward the issue of Bible translation by asking the very simple question: "By what standard" are we to judge the authority and reliability of translations of the Bible into modern languages? With clarity and brevity, William Einwechter shows that there are biblical criteria for judging the reliability of English translations. Therefore, the Christian is not at liberty to simply choose one that suits his fancy, and the church cannot be indifferent in the selection of a translation for public use. With the very integrity of God's Word at stake, the conscientious believer cannot be pro-choice on the issue of Bible translations!

Eucharist

A Cure for Broken Christian Communities
Author : Nilavan S.

978-93-91694-26-5 | 104pg | Paperback | ₹130.00

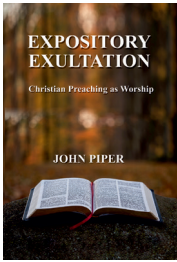

"Fr Nilavan's knowledge of the Eucharist is highly commendable. He is deeply biblical and soundly theological. He emphatically stresses certain guidelines enshrined in the Eucharist for the Christian community to follow. It is written in a simple narrative bearing important features of the Eucharist. May he bring forth many more books of this kind."

Expository Exultation

Christian Preaching as Worship
Author : John Piper

978-81-939006-3-5 | 328pg | Paperback | ₹600.00

“God has appointed preaching in worship as one great means of accomplishing his ultimate goal in the world.” -John Piper John Piper makes a compelling claim in these pages about the purpose of preaching: it is intended not merely as an explanation of the text but also as a means of awakening worship by being worship in and of itself. Christian preaching is a God-appointed miracle aiming to awaken the supernatural seeing, savoring, and showing of the glory of Christ.

Finding God in People

Edited : Antony Lawrence

978-93-89069-55-6 | 102pg | Paperback | ₹200.00

“Finding God in People” with the content of two plays: “VOICE: Live and Let Live” and “A WOUNDED HEALER” is an absolutely fascinating, unique, throughout, compelling and deeply inspiring work with embodied image of a true Christen, that may well challenge our understanding of the meaning of Christian life and vocation. The plays are truly a genius genuineness of the literary creativity of the author, sets the scenes in a very straightforward manner telling the audience the setting, protagonists and theme with crystal clear clarity and blistering suspense, highlighting love, humanity and kindness in the terrifying face of intolerance and hate.

Facebook or Face the Book?

Biblical Principles for Facebook Users
Author : Lalminthang Lhouvum

978-93-91694-06-7 | 108pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

FACEBOOK OR FACE THE BOOK?

LALMINTHANG LHOUVUM

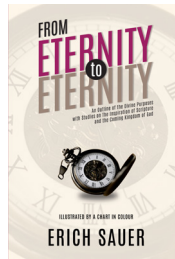

In an age of advanced technology, it is quite insecure for the believers to remain untutored biblically and be negligent of the biblical principles for the Christian life. One needs to know the bound of his life and confine within that green zone.

This book concerns mainly the millennials who often seek remedies to life's puzzles in social media but are often blown away by the digital hot air. Even the unsophisticated pre-millennials are often trapped by the evil seduction of social media. Facebook Or Face The Book provides fourteen basic principles of the Bible which will safeguard the believers from various ethical and moral deviations. This book is a “safety manual” for all users of social media, especially Facebook.

From Eternity to Eternity

Author : Erich Sauer

978-81-953966-1-0 | 262pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

The highest commendation of this new work by Erich Sauer is that it is a worthy successor to his two former volumes, The Dawn of World Redemption and The Triumph of Crucified, of which, in their English editions alone, over 20,000 copies were sold in their first twenty months of publication. Together the three volumes from trilogy of Biblical exposition Seldom equalled, and by their issue the author has placed the whole Christian in his debt.

Global Dictionary of Theology

A Resource for the Worldwide Church

Edited By : William A Dyrness and Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen

978-81-937008-7-7 | 1024pg | Hardcover | ₹1200.00

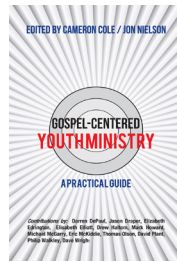

Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library. But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology, a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology. The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South. But it also reflects the increase in two-way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree.

Gospel-Centered Youth Ministry

A Practical Guide

Edited By : Cameron Cole and Jon Nielson

978-81-937008-9-1 | 214pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

Offering practical guidance related to teaching, implementing small groups, interacting with parents, leading mission trips, building community, and more, each chapter equips youth leaders to effectively address students' hearts and see God work in and through their lives.

Good News of Great Joy!

Expository Sermons on Christmas

Author : David Mende

978-93-89069-47-1 | 74pg | Paperback | ₹150.00

This eloquent book is the fruit of Dr. Mende's honest and careful study of scriptures. Based on fine biblical scholarship, deep insights, and perspective, he beautifully describes the topics such as the preeminence, uniqueness, supremacy, and sufficiency of Christ. The language of this book is simple, but at the same time, its contents are profound, which helps the readers to reflect on Christ's deity, His incarnation, and the outcome of His work on the cross.

Hebrews: A Thematic Exploration

(With an Introduction by C. I. David Joy)

Edited By : Nghâklianmawia and Matsüng Longkumer

978-93-89069-00-6 | 138pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

Epistle to the Hebrews has been overshadowed by other New Testament books, especially the Gospels and Pauline Epistles, in the history of Christian thought. However, today the theologies of Hebrews have great impact on the life and ministry of the church.

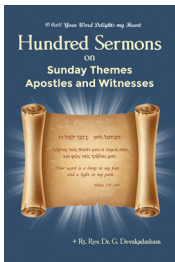

In a context like India, the church is called to focus on the Cross which fulfills the promise of God. It is the Cross which gives strength to endure; which motivates and encourages the church and create a non-communal environment.

Introduction to the Puritans

Author : Erroll Hulse

978-93-91694-63-0 | 323pg | Paperback | ₹695.00

Introduction to the Puritans is a wonderful overview of the Puritan movement in the 1600s that has given the English-speaking world its richest depository of theological writings, with practical applications in every area of life.

Part One helps us to understand the fascinating history as the British monarchy took some unpredictable turns and various factions literally fought for control of Britain's religious life.

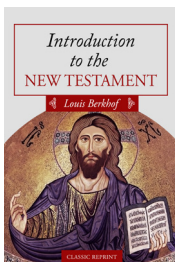

Part Two ably elucidates the lives of the Puritans with brief summaries of 20+ Puritan leaders.

Part Three shows us the importance of the Puritan legacy as it applies to important doctrinal and practical issues of our day.

Introduction to the New Testament

Author : Louis Berkhof

978-93-89069-31-0 | 218pg | Paperback | ₹495.00

In his book, Introduction to the New Testament, Louis Berkhof investigates the history and purpose of the Gospels and Epistles in the New Testament. Berkhof's sections begin with a brief outline followed by a comprehensive look at the characteristics, authorship, composition, and canonical significance of each New Testament book. Preceding his discussion of the Gospels, Berkhof discusses the nature and inspiration of the Gospels in general, and introduces the Johannine problem, in which the first three Synoptic Gospels are set apart from the latter Gospel, John. Berkhof's Introduction relies on the findings of a wide range of New Testament scholars including the early Church Fathers.

Jude: A Mirror of the Early Church

"Snatching them Out of Fire" (V.23)

Author : C.I. David Joy

978-93-91694-36-4 | 124pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

"It is amazing to study The Book of Jude due to its focused nature in presenting a number of theological themes. Although Jude presents only a few theological and ecclesial themes, they seem to be very significant in the life and ministry of the early church. This book brings out three main ideas namely the Socio-Cultural context of early church to which Jude was written, a sociological exegesis of the book of Jude and analysis of major theological themes of the book. Every word used in this epistle carries a very meaningful theological understanding of the scriptural aspects of the text."

Land Acquisition

Perspectives from the Marginalized Communities

Author : Selvaraj Arulnathan S.J and S. Lourduanathan

978-93-89069-04-4 | 196pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

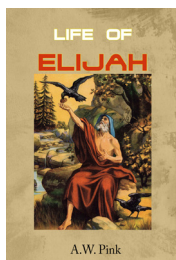

“Land Acquisition: Perspectives from the Marginalized Communities” is a research study taken up by Indian Social Institute, Bangalore (ISI B) in the context of many farmers and agriculture-based daily workers committing suicide mainly for three reasons: first, under the Land Acquisition Act, small, medium and marginal farmers’ lands were targeted and taken away by force in the name of development; second, those who spanned their life around agricultural labor who did not know any other occupation other than agricultural labor as most of them were illiterate unskilled laborers from SC communities.

Life of Elijah

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-89069-11-2 | 286pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

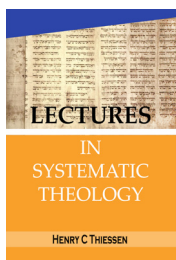

The life of Elijah has gripped the thought and imagination of preachers and writers in all ages. His sudden appearance out of complete obscurity, his dramatic interventions in the national history of Israel, his miracles, his departure from the earth in a chariot of fire all serve to that end. He comes in like a tempest, who went out like a whirlwind, says Bishop Hall; the first we hear from him is an oath and a threat. Judgment and mercy were mingled throughout Elijah’s astonishing career.

Lectures in Systematic Theology

Author : Henry C. Thiessen

978-81-935964-0-1 | 470pg | Paperback | ₹850.00

Originally published in 1949 and then Revised in 1979, this comprehensive introduction to systematic theology has well served countless students and pastors for more than half a century. In this paperback edition it will continue to instruct serious students of the Bible and theology.

Liturgy in the Twenty-First Century

Contemporary Issues and Perspectives

Edited by : Alcuin Reid

978-93-89611-30-4 | 368pg | Paperback | ₹750.00

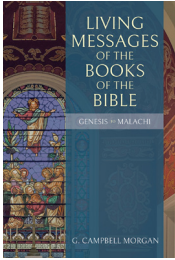

“Because the Sacred Liturgy is truly the font from which all the Church’s power flows... we must do everything we can to put the Sacred Liturgy back at the very heart of the relationship between God and man... I ask you to continue to work towards achieving the liturgical aims of the Second Vatican Council...and to work to continue the liturgical renewal promoted by Pope Benedict XVI, especially through the post-synodal apostolic exhortation Sacramentum Caritatis...and the motu proprio Summorum Pontificum... I ask you to be wise, like the householder...who knows when to bring out of his treasure things both new and old (see: Mtt 13:52), so that the Sacred Liturgy as it is celebrated and lived today may lose nothing of the estimable riches of the Church’s liturgical tradition, whilst always being open to legitimate development.”

Living Messages of the Books of the bible

Genesis to Malachi

Author : G. Campbell Morgan

978-93-89069-65-5 | 434pg | Paperback | ₹800.00

Excerpt from Living Messages of the Books of the Bible: Genesis to Malachi The word encouragement is perhaps even more full of suggestiveness. It is closely allied to the word in the New Testament which is used of the Holy Spirit, the word Paraclete.

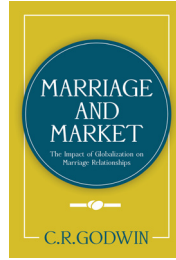

All the spacious value of the word Paraclete, as used of the Holy Spirit, is contained in the word encouragement when used in reference to the Scriptures of truth. It suggests appeal and advocacy. The things written a foretime make their perpetual appeal to men as they advocate the true principle of life in the midst of conflict.

Marriage and Market

The Impact of Globalization Marriage Relationships

Author : C.R. Godwin

978-81-949910-8-3 | 150pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

I recommend this book because it contains immense information on marriage and market and the readers discover treasures of knowledge on the topic. This book in many ways, is a pioneering attempt to discuss about the impact of globalization on marriage relationships.

So it deserves to be widely read and discussed by lay leaders, students, teachers and scholars.

Loved to Love

Marital Quality of Childless Couples

Author : L.V. Bipinlal

978-93-89069-17-4 | 122pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

This book is an added rich resource materials in the field of pastoral care and counselling. The author Dr. L. V. Bipinlal has explored the issue of childless couple- the quality of married life. In spite of modern day family lifestyle where some couples opted to be childless by choice yet majority of married couples wish to have children because children are precious gift from God and it is a part of family life. The author discovered that childless couples have tremendous psychosocial problems and they need care and counselling to have a quality life which Churches cannot ignored in their ministry.

Media Omnipresence

A Study of Media, Marketing, Development and Politics

Author : Francis Arackal

978-93-89069-29-7 | 292pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

The omnipotence of mass media was already felt in the beginning of the twentieth century even though the main media present were only newspapers, magazines and radio. Of course, media attained the status of a religion only with the arrival of television – family altars were replaced with the “idiot box”; television, “the big medium”, by the end of the twentieth century became the surrogate parent, teacher and god. And then the omnipresence of the media was felt with the launching of the internet enabling instant social networking.

Minorities and Nation Building

Editors : Selvaraj Arulnathan S.J,
S. Lourdunathan and Denzil Fernandes S.J

978-93-89069-08-2 | 256pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

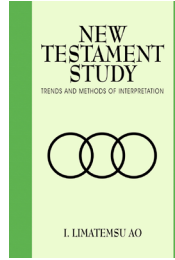

“Minorities” is one of the words that has been discussed and debated most in free independent India. This term is used against the idea of majority. A cursive reading of Indian society reveals generally the three types of minorities: religious minorities, linguistic minorities and cultural minorities. Among them ‘religious minorities’ has been drawing more steam and fire than others. This has become the hotbed of political debate and engagement around which the whole nation is politicized.

New Testament Study

Trends and Methods of Interpretation

Author : I. Limatemsu Ao

978-93-89069-43-3 | 116pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

Attempts to offer the reader a succinct view of the trends and methods in interpreting the New Testament. It covers the criticisms from the early centuries to the present.

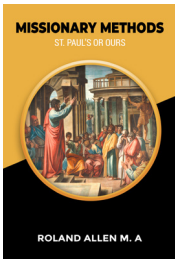

This concise work will be helpful for students at the Post-Graduate level of studies on the subjects of Biblical Hermeneutics, Synoptic Gospels and Biblical Studies in general. It will also be helpful as a preparatory reading in methodological explorations for higher level of research in biblical studies.

Missionary Methods

St. Paul's or Ours

Author : Roland Allen M.A

978-93-89069-16-7 | 200pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

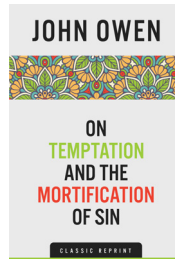

An observation – What is interesting about this book, written 100 years ago, is how much of it applies to church-building today, in the 21st century. Although it is titled Missionary Methods, it is about far more than missions overseas during the Age of Missions. It is about church planting today. It addresses how pastors should look at their congregations; and how they can release the people of God to do the work of Christ in the world, by the power of the Spirit.

On Temptation and the Mortification of Sin

Author : John Owen

978-93-91694-71-5 | 283pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

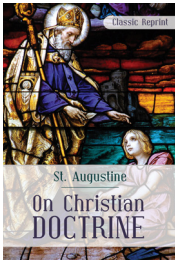

Temptation is John Owen's biblical warning to Christians for avoiding the many significant harms of temptation. It is the second of his three books dealing with sin: Mortification of Sin, Temptation, and Indwelling Sin. In Temptation, Owen presents one of the most thorough treatments of our part in sanctification (“Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation,” Mat 26:41) and Christ’s part (“I will keep thee from the hour of temptation,” Rev 3:10).

On Christian Doctrine

Author : St. Augustine

978-93-89069-74-7 | 195pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

The four books of St. Augustin On Christian Doctrine (De Doctrina Christiana, iv libri) are a compend of exegetical theology to guide the reader in the understanding and interpretation of the Sacred Scriptures, according to the analogy of faith. The first three books were written ad 397; the fourth was added 426. It is the first and best patristic work on biblical Hermeneutics, and continued for a thousand years, together with the Prefaces of Jerome, to be the chief exegetical guide. Although it is superseded as a scientific work by modern Hermeneutics and Critical Introductions to the Old and New Testaments, it is not surpassed for originality, depth and spiritual insight.

On the Incarnation

De Incarnatione Verbi Dei

Author : Athanasius

978-93-91694-18-0 | 85pg | Paperback | ₹200.00

On the Incarnation contains the reflections of Athanasius of Alexandria, upon the subjects of Christ, His purpose on Earth, and the nature of the Holy Spirit. This work was composed partly to explain Athanasius's thoughts on Jesus Christ and the nature of the Holy Spirit, and partly to refute the views of Arius, a rival deacon within the Egyptian church. According to Athanasius, God arrived on Earth as Christ to show humans a pure example of divinity - through this illustration, humans may themselves aspire to immortality.

Orthodoxy

Author : G.K. Chesterton

978-93-89069-75-4 | 181pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

Orthodoxy (1908) is a book by G. K. Chesterton that has become a classic of Christian apologetics. [citation needed] Chesterton considered this book a companion to his other work, Heretics, writing it expressly in response to G. S. Street's criticism of the earlier work, "that he was not going to bother about his theology until I had really stated mine". In the book's preface, Chesterton states the purpose is to "attempt an explanation, not of whether the Christian faith can be believed, but of how he personally has come to believe it."

Pastor Abusers

When Sheep Attack their Shepherd

Author : Kent Crockett

978-93-91694-62-3 | 190pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

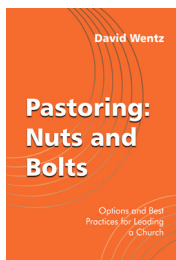

"It was more than I could take when my wife had an emotional breakdown. As I held her in my arms, she cried uncontrollably, sobbing a few words at a time, 'All we've tried to do ... is love these people ... and all we get in return ... is hate.'"

"I went out to my driveway and found a tire on my van had been slashed, as had been a tire on my other car. The same person who had done this had gotten under the hood and removed a relay for the headlights. ... This group meant business and was determined to get their way."

Pastoring: Nuts and Bolts

Options and Best Practices for Leading a Church
Author : David Wentz

978-93-89069-27-3 | 306pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

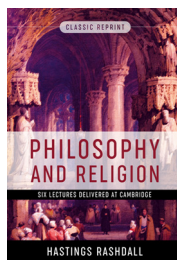

Starting with God's three-fold purpose for the church, the reader is taken through every aspect of the pastor's life from call to retirement before examining options and best practices for organizing and operating a local church. Comprehensive, eminently practical, and intended for universal application across cultures and theologies, pastoring contains nuggets of wisdom for veteran pastors and newcomers alike. The realistic description of pastoral life will be invaluable to those considering a call to ministry, as well as church leaders wishing to better support their pastor.

Philosophy and Religion

Six Lectures Delivered at Cambridge
Author : Hastings Rashdall

978-81-953966-0-3 | 153pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

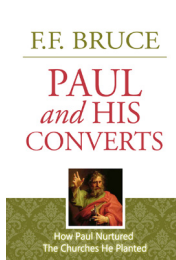

Philosophy and Religion is a classic religious philosophy text by Hastings Rashdall. Man has no deeper or wider interest than theology; none deeper, for however much he may change, he never loses his love of the many questions it covers; and none wider, for under whatever law he may live he never escapes from its spacious shade; nor does he ever find that it speaks to him in vain or uses a voice that fails to reach him.

Paul and His Converts

How Paul Nurtured The Churches He Planted
Author : F.F. Bruce

978-93-89069-20-4 | 98pg | Paperback | ₹200.00

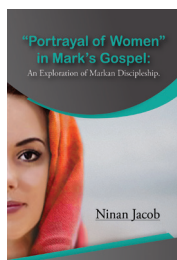

In this commentary on five of Paul's letters—to the churches in Corinth, Thessalonica, and Philippi—F.F. Bruce focuses on Paul's pastoral care and the growth of the people he loved so much. Since we face today so many of the problems and issues Paul and his converts faced, this book acts as a guide for growth. How can we encourage and build up fellow believers? How can we correct their shortcomings? How can we fulfill the desire to see them become 100% Christians?

"Portrayal of Women" in Mark's Gospel

An Exploration of Markan Discipleship
Author : Ninan Jacob

978-93-89069-25-9 | 100pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

To reinforce patriarchal ordering of social relationship and deny the rightful place of women in church leadership, the hierarchy reiterates the prevalent assumption that the disciples of Jesus were all men. Biblical references are highlighted to establish that Jesus had not called women to the inner circle of leadership. The importance of this book is a conscientious evaluation of this constructed myth of the hierarchical church. Through a meticulous study of the Gospel of Mark.

Postcolonial Tribal Theology

Reading Poverty in Luke 6:21

Author : Chenijan Patton

978-81-939006-0-4 | 126pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

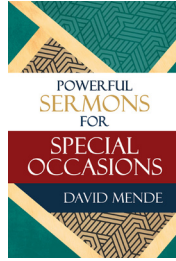

Postcolonial Tribal Theology: Reading poverty in Luke 6:21 is a work that attempts to re-read the theology of poverty in luke 6:21 to unmask the imperial overtone within the text owing to the Sitz-in-Leben with which the text was composed. The theology of poverty located in Luke 6:21 had been interpreted in the Christian faith tradition as a message of God's vindication of the poor and the judgment of the wicked.

Powerful Sermons for Special Occasions

Author : David Mende

978-93-89069-69-3 | 210pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

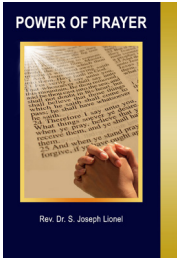

This is a rare book. Many preachers preach on special occasions but never attempt to put it in writing. I appreciate and thank Dr. David Mende for his great efforts in bringing out this book. In this collection, he brought out practical lessons for the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ. This book is helpful to all, particularly to preachers who face different challenges to share the Word of God. Dr. David Mende is an excellent writer. Many useful books came from his pen thus far. I pray that he will continue to bring such spiritually enriching material for the glory of God and the benefit of the Church.

Power of Prayer

Author : S. Joseph Lionel

64pg | Paperback | ₹80.00

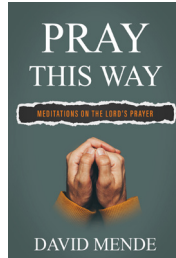

This book presents biblical and pastoral reflections on Prayer in six short chapters. It opens with the prayer experience of Jesus and ends with personal testimonies of individual believers. Thus this book portrays that our prayer experience today is an imitation of our Divine Master, Jesus Christ. In between these two dimensions, the author presents very rich history and solid biblical and pastoral reflections on the prayer experience of various personalities in the Bible and in the Christian Tradition.

Pray This Way

Meditation on the Lord's Prayer

Author : David Mende

978-93-91694-85-2 | 83pg | Paperback | ₹160.00

Dr. David Mende brings alive the Lord's Prayer through this book. The reader is drawn closer to God as the meaning and depth of each word and phrase are brought home. This is master-class authorship that combines theological depth with pragmatic life application. Every page and chapter is captivating. Mende has written a page-turner in "Pray This Way: Meditations on the Lord's Prayer" that keeps the reader eager for what's coming next.

Prayer of Jabez and Moses

Author : Charles H. Spurgeon and James A. Haldane

978-93-89069-30-3 | 42pg | Paperback | ₹120.00

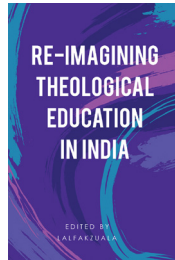

We know very little about Jabez, except that he was more honorable than his brethren, and that he was called Jabez because his mother bare him with sorrow. It will sometimes happen that where there is the most sorrow in the antecedents, there will be the most pleasure in the sequel. As the furious storm gives place to the clear sunshine, so the night of weeping precedes the morning of joy (Psalm 30:5).

Re-Imagining Theological Education in India

Edited by : Lalfakzuala

978-81-939006-7-3 | 302pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

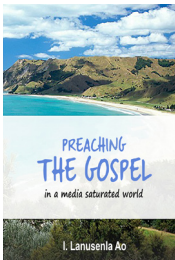

It is appropriate, and indeed high time to re-look and reimagine the whole system of theological education under the Senate of Serampore College (University) as it reaches its centenary this year. The first section of this book consists of various articles critically reflecting upon the content, form, method and praxis of Theological education under the Senate of Serampore College (University) in particular and theological education in general. The second section consists of various insightful and creative articles with sound methodologies from different disciplines.

Preaching the Gospel

in a media saturated world

Author : I. Lanusenla Ao

978-93-89069-14-3 | 124pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

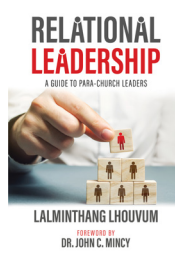

When we look at the reality of our life and existence, we are faced with layers and layers of challenges both from within and outside. It begins with our own personal battles at home within the family circles. We also face many hardships and problems in the larger society, the Church, State, nation and beyond. Our faith is continually shaken by various forces which make it very difficult for us to make a stand in certain situations, hesitant and indecisive about what to do and how to face the situation and so on in our lives.

Relational Leadership

A Guide to Para-Church Leaders

Author : Lalminthang Lhouvum

978-93-91694-78-4 | 214pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

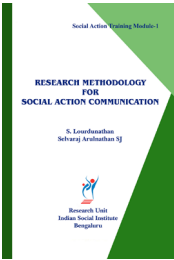

Does Christianity need one more book on leadership? Perhaps not, due to the abundance of books poured out on this field both within Christianity and the corporate world. Yet for one reason, the inexhaustible nature of the Bible accommodates any number of books for its interpretations while it remains inexhaustible. Moreover, everyone's circle of influence differs and necessitates it.

Research Methodology for Social Action Communication

Author : S Lourdnathan and Selvaraj Arulnathan SJ

978-93-89069-06-8 | 120pg | Paperback | ₹150.00

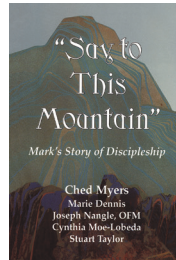

This training module-1, entitled Research Methodology for Social Action Communication is the basic guideline material primarily intended to benefit those who undertake our workshops on Social Action Research Methodology and by extension it will also be useful for those who engage in social action research pursuits. The trainees, I believe, would actively engage reading and utilization of this book-let, as to strengthen their vocation for social commitment.

Say to this Mountain

Mark's Story of Discipleship

Author : Ched Myers and Marrie Dennis

978-81-935964-4-9 | 256pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

In "Say to this Mountain" Myers is joined by a team of authors, Catholic and Protestant, committed to the work of justice and peace, the renewal of the church, and to Christian discipleship. With Myers they share in the conviction that Mark's story has transforming power only as it intersects with our own life stories and the boarder story of the times in which we lives. The authors of this book have designed a process for reading the Gospel of Mark in which each of the three circles of story informs the other.

Romans

Righteousness from Heaven

Author : R. Kent Hughes

978-81-939006-4-2 | 344pg | Paperback | ₹650.00

PREACHING the WORD

ROMANS
Righteousness from Heaven

R. KENT HUGHES

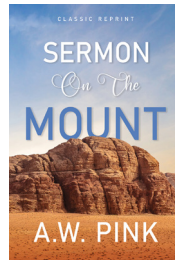

Few Christians would dispute that the book of Romans is one of the most powerful and influential books ever written. After all, Paul's epistle has been the written force behind some of the most significant conversions of church history: St. Augustine was convicted of his sin after reading some verses from the thirteen chapter; Martin Luther recovered the doctrine of salvation by faith from his study of Romans 1:17; John Wesley felt his heart "strangely warmed" and transformed while listening to the reading of Luther's preface to the book of Romans; and John Bunyan was so inspired as he studied the great themes of Romans that he wrote the immortal Pilgrim's Progress. There is no doubt about the power of the book of Romans.

Sermon on the Mount

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-89069-40-2 | 310pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

This major work of Arthur W. Pink, consisting of 64 chapters covering Matthew 5 to 7, is a verse-by-verse and almost word-for-word exposition. It answers just about every question that can be raised as to the meaning of each portion of the Sermon on the Mount. Pink, with his usual and characteristic thoroughness and helpfulness, earnestly and prayerfully seeks to bring out the practical teaching of this portion of God's Word and shows how to pertinently and pointedly it applies to us today. The importance of Christ's Sermon on the Mount cannot be exaggerated.

Social Empowerment: Dalit Engagement

Author : S Lourdunathan and Selvaraj Arulnathan

978-93-89069-05-1 | 110pg | Paperback | ₹150.00

This training module-2, entitled Social Empowerment Dalit Engagement is intended to serve as a guiding material to those who undertake development action towards Dalit empowerment. It will be also useful to scholars who undertake social science studies from the perspective of the marginalised people. It deals primarily with three aspects– (i) Tracing the unsocial in Indian society construed through Vedas and its world view (ii) Presentation of Dalit Social Reality by Facts and Figures (iii) Contribution of Ambedkar to Social Empowerment Dalit Engagement.

Studying the Synoptic Gospel

Origin and Interpretation (Second Edition)

Author : Robert H Stein

978-81-935964-2-5 | 302pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

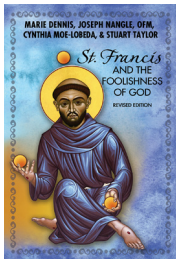

“[Stein] expertly introduces the student to the Synoptic Problem and to the methodologies which it entails... It is an excellent textbook for one of almost any theological persuasion.”
–Christian Scholar’s Review.

Stein examines in-depth the literary relationship of the Synoptic Gospels, the preliterary history of the gospel traditions, and the inscription of the gospel traditions.

St. Francis and the Foolishness of God: Revised Edition

Author : Marie Dennis, Joseph Nangle, OFM,

978-81-935964-3-2 | 240pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

One of the most-beloved of saints, the way Saint Francis resonates most with those who long to overcome inequality and poverty, consumerism and spiritual emptiness. Francis’ joyful spirituality combines the mystical with the earthly, liberation with faithfulness, literal poverty with the blessed poverty of the spirit.

For this new edition, the authors take special inspiration from the example and witness of Pope Francis, who demonstrates time and again the enduring challenge of Francis—especially in responding to poverty, the cause of peace, inter-religious dialogue, and the urgent challenge of ecology.

Summary of Christian Doctrine

Author : Louis Berkhof

978-93-89069-28-0 | 176pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

Just as Berkhof’s Systematic Theology is outstanding in its own field, his Summary of Christian Doctrine is unequalled as a popular handbook of Christian doctrine, written from an evangelical and reformed standpoint. Systematically arranged and helpfully subdivided, A Summary of Christian Doctrine has proved ideal for church study-groups. Passages for memorization and questions for review at the close of each chapter enhance the book’s value for the student.

Survey of the New Testament

Everyman's Bible Commentary

Author : Paul N Benware

978-81-940425-0-1 | 340pg | Paperback | ₹595.00

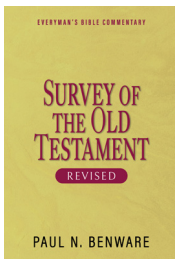

In Survey of the New Testament, Paul Benware approaches the New Testament in three helpful segments: the anticipation, institution, and fulfillment of the new covenant. Questions will be addressed such as 'What is the purpose of life?' and 'Can I be freed from guilt and sin?' This handy primer will help any student of the Bible understand the content, unity, and progression of the New Testament.

Survey of the Old Testament

Everyman's Bible Commentary

Author : Paul N. Benware

978-81-940425-1-8 | 318pg | Paperback | ₹595.00

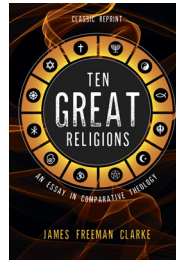

The New Testament Scriptures will never be properly understood by a person if the Old Testament Scriptures essentially remain a mystery to him," says Paul Benware. Most Christians do not have a clear understanding of the pattern, unity, or progression of the Old Testament. They can tell stories of Moses, Noah, and David, but they aren't sure how all these events fit together. And they don't fully appreciate the doctrines found in the thirty-nine books between Genesis and Malachi. But the Old Testament does not have to be mysterious or confusing.

Ten Great Religions

An Essay in Comparative Theology

Author : James Freeman Clarke

978-81-953966-8-9 | 628pg | Paperback | ₹995.00

Ten Great Religions: An Essay in Comparative Theology by American theologian James Freeman Clarke was first published in 1899.

Chapters include: Introduction, Ethnic and Catholic religions; Confucius and the Chinese, or, The prose of Asia; Brahmanism; Buddhism, or, The Protestantism of the East; Zoroaster and the Zend Avesta; The gods of Egypt; The gods of Greece; The religion of Rome; The Teutonic and Scandinavian religion; The Jewish religion; Mohammed and Islam; and, The ten religions and Christianity. The author was one of the first Americans to explore and write about Eastern religions.

The Beatitudes and the Lord's Prayer

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-91694-44-9 | 140pg | Paperback | ₹295.00

A.W. PINK

Those familiar with Pink's typically rich and reverent treatment of God's Word will welcome this new book centered on two key passages of the New Testament.

This material on the Beatitudes and the Lord's Prayer is being published for the first time in book form.

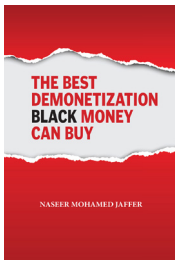

With typical thoroughness and clarity, Pink relates the practical implications of sincere discipleship and prayer to the central doctrines of the Christian faith.

The Best Demonetization Black Money Can Buy

Author : Naseer Mohammed Jaffer

978-93-89069-63-1 | 176pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

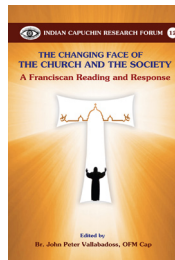

The book brings to the reader a profusion of theoretical concepts in analysing demonetization and stimulates interest in exploring them further for a better understanding of not only demonetization but of how the world works.

The Changing Face of the Church and the Society

Author : Br. John Peter Vallabados

978-81-935964-6-3 | 308pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

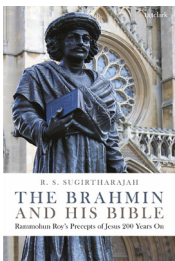

The theme, "The changing face of the Church: challenges and prospects," is being discussed and deliberated all over the world, as Indian Capuchin Research Forum in its symposium did in March, 2017 at Kotagiri. The Church in India too is changing rapidly and we need to be ready with valid and proper answers. The Indian political scenario is also changing and there will be many decisions by Hindu fundamentalist, which will be thrust upon us.

The Brahmin and His Bible

Rammohun Roy's Precepts of Jesus 200 Years On

Author : R.S. Sugirtharajah

978-93-89611-29-8 | 150pg | Paperback | ₹599.00

On the bicentenary of the publication of Raja Rammohun Roy's Precepts of Jesus, R. S. Sugirtharajah situates Roy's compilation of the moral teachings of Jesus in its social, cultural and political context and analyses the hermeneutical issues it generated. In doing so, he documents the often acrimonious exegetical exchanges between Roy and the missionaries over the standing and status of the Bible; their often differing hermeneutical suppositions and strategies; their contradictory consturals of Jesus; and disputes about translations. Sugirtharajah addresses issues such as the place of the Precepts among earlier Gospel Harmonies, Roy's use of the Improved Version, a highly contentious Unitarian Bible, and his motives for translating his own Hindu texts.

The Dangers of the Health and Wealth

Author : David Mende

978-93-89069-45-7 | 134pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

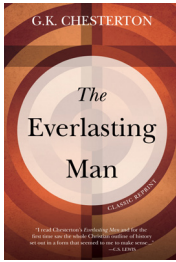

'Doctor' David Mende not only rightly diagnoses but also treats the disease of the Health and Wealth Gospel from his personal experience and thoroughly biblical and field research. In doing so he also cautions its hyper critics of 'throwing the baby with the bathwater'. His antidote to 'another gospel' is the true Gospel, which he posits with clarity. A very balanced, unbiased therapy of an otherwise polarized subject this is – a tome to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the Body of Christ – a must-read for every Christian!

The Everlasting Man

Author : G.K. Chesterton

978-93-91694-16-6 | 318pg | Paperback | ₹595.00

Beginning with an insightful study on the nature of man, Chesterton argues that the central character in history is Jesus Christ, the everlasting Man. No other explanation of the world first the evidence. Exploding the stale formula of Christ as the pale product of human imagination, he triumphantly asserts the glory and unassailable logic of Christ as the God who, in the fullness of time, steps into his own creation. Displaying all of his brilliant synthesis and devastating irony, The Everlasting Man is perhaps Chesterton's best book ever.

The Focus of Faith

Author : Blake Western

978-81-940425-6-3 | 166pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

The Focus of Faith is not some vague wish. It is objective, based on the Bible. The messages in this book point to the source of the Christian's faith. They are meant, not only for believers, but for people who may be searching for a faith to anchor their life.

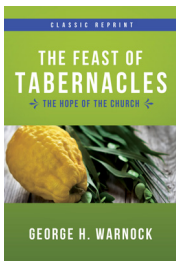

If you read this book, you will read about the very heart of the Gospel. You will find messages to encourage but also point the way to Christ.

The Feast of Tabernacles

The Hope of the Church

Author : George H. Warnock

978-81-953966-5-8 | 216pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

Beginning with an insightful study on the nature of man, Chesterton argues that the central character in history is Jesus Christ, the everlasting Man. No other explanation of the world first the evidence. Exploding the stale formula of Christ as the pale product of human imagination, he triumphantly asserts the glory and unassailable logic of Christ as the God who, in the fullness of time, steps into his own creation. Displaying all of his brilliant synthesis and devastating irony, The Everlasting Man is perhaps Chesterton's best book ever.

The Formation of Biblical Canon

The Old & New Testament: Its Authority and Canonicity

Author : Lee Martin MacDonald

978-93-89611-27-4 | 2VOL | Hardcover | ₹7999.00

Lee Martin MacDonald provides a magisterial overview of the development of the biblical canon – the emergence of the list of individual texts that constitutes the Christian bible. In these two volumes – in sum more than double the length of his previous works on this subject – McDonald presents his most in-depth overview to date. McDonald shows students and researchers how the list of texts that constitute 'the bible' was once far more fluid than it is today and guides readers through the minefield of different texts, different versions, and the different lists of texts considered 'canonical' that abounded in antiquity. Questions of the origin and transmission of texts are introduced as well as consideration of innovations in the presentation of texts, collections of documents, archaeological finds and Church councils.

The Gift from Above

Biblical, Theological and Pastoral Reflections on the Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Author : S. Joseph Lionel

76pg | Paperback | ₹120.00

This book explains the Gifts of the Holy Spirit from Biblical, Theological and Pastoral perspectives. The first chapter explains the action of the Holy Spirit in the history of salvation. The second chapter begins with patristic meditations on the works of the Holy Spirit and goes further to explain the development of the theology of the Holy Spirit during middle ages and explanations given at Vatican II, Catechism of the Catholic Church and pronouncements of the Popes. The third and final chapter explains the gifts of the Holy Spirit and their manifestations in the life of an individual believer and the public life of the Church. Through this book readers would have a comprehensive knowledge about the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The Gospel According to God

Rediscovering the Most Remarkable Chapter in the Old Testament

Author : John MacArthur

978-81-939006-5-9 | 224pg | Paperback | ₹450.00

“He was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.” (Isaiah 53:5).

Often hailed as one of the greatest chapters in the Bible, the prophecy of the suffering servant in Isaiah 53 foretells the crucifixion of Jesus, the central event in God's ultimate plan to redeem the world.

The Heroes of Faith

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-89069-02-0 | 288pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

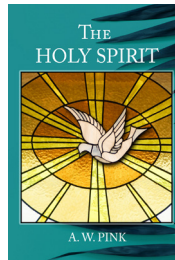

The Heroes of Faith, as only A. W. Pink can, presents the persons and events of Hebrews chapter eleven both in understandable terms and with deep spiritual insight. The reader will agree that this is both an immensely practical devotional study and a doctrinally clear biblical exposition. The author skillfully develops the character of Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Sarah, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Rahab, and the Judges. Faith itself is expounded in chapters on its excellence, perseverance, reward, achievements, and pinnacle. In all, Christ is glorified as the great Object of faith in the whole of the Scriptures.

The Holy Spirit

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-89069-35-8 | 186pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

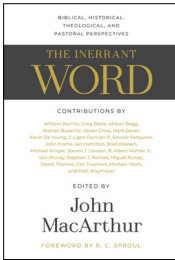

Wherever Christianity has been a living power, the doctrine of the Holy Spirit has uniformly been regarded, equally with the Atonement and Justification by faith, as the article of a standing or falling church. The distinctive feature of Christianity as it addresses itself to man's experience, is the work of the Spirit, which not only elevates it far above all philosophical speculation, but also above every other form of religion. That the Holy Spirit is to be publicly owned and equally honored with the Father and the Son is very evident from the terms of the great commission, “Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

The Inerrant Word

Biblical, Historical, Theological, and Pastoral Perspectives

Edited By : John MacArthur

978-81-939006-6-6 | 400pg | Paperback | ₹700.00

Christians are called to stand firm on the in-errancy of Scripture. Sadly, more and more people—not only from outside the church but also from within—are denying the complete truthfulness of God’s Word.

Edited by pastor John MacArthur, these commissioned essays by a host of evangelical pastors, theologians, historians, and biblical scholars contend that the Bible is completely true and without error—a foundational belief for those who claim to honour God.

The IVP Bible Background Commentary Old Testament

John H. Walton, Victor H. Matthews, Mark W. Chavalas

978-93-89069-10-5 | 832pg | Hardcover | ₹1200.00

How can we account for the “Book of the Law” suddenly being discovered during Josiah’s renovation of the temple (2 Chron 34:14)?

We know from Egypt and Mesopotamia that it was common to seal important documents—including theological documents—in the masonry or foundations of a palace or temple in order to inform a future king who might undertake restoration of the building.

TEXT BOOK

The IVP Bible Background Commentary New Testament

Author : Craig S. Keener

978-93-89069-09-9 | 816pg | Hardcover | ₹1200.00

To understand and apply the Bible well, you need two crucial sources of information. One is the Bible itself. The other is an understanding of the cultural background of the passage you’re reading.

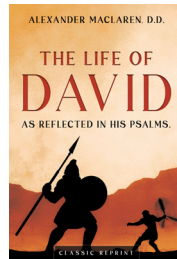

Only with this background can you grasp the author’s original concerns and purposes. This unique commentary provides, in verse-by-verse format, the crucial cultural background you need for responsible—and richer—Bible study. This revised edition of the standard reference work in its field has been expanded throughout to now provide even more up-to-date information by one of the leading New Testament scholars on Jewish, Greek and Roman culture.

The Life of David

As Reflected in His Psalms

Author : Alexander Maclaren

978-81-953966-7-2 | 173pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

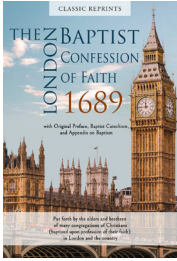

What a many-colored career that was which began amidst the pastoral solitudes of Bethlehem, and ended in the chamber where the dying ears heard the blare of the trumpets that announced the accession of Bathsheba’s son! None of the great men of scripture pass through a course of so many changes as David; none of them touched human life at so many points; none of them were so tempered and polished by swift alternation of heat and cold, by such heavy blows and the friction of such rapid revolutions. These quick transitions of fortune, and this wide experience, are the many-colored threads from which the rich web of his psalms is woven.

The London Baptist Confession of Faith 1689

with Original Preface, Baptist Catechism, and Appendix on Baptism

978-93-89069-12-9 | 134pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

The London Baptist Confession of 1677/89 played an important role in Baptist history. The Act of Uniformity of 1662 made the new Anglican Prayer Book mandatory for use in all Anglican, Presbyterian, Congregationalist, and Baptist churches in England. Moreover, the Anglican church abandoned the Westminster Confession and returned to the Thirty-Nine Articles as its official confession of faith. Consequently, with the restoration of the Monarchy, the English Baptists suffered persecution for their faith. In 1677, a group of Particular Baptists met for the purpose of producing a more expansive confession than the previous Baptist confession of 1644.

The Origin of the New Testament

And the Most Important Consequences of the New Creation

Author : Adolf Von Harnack

978-93-91694-17-3 | 218pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

Adolf Harnack viewed the formation of the Christian canon as a mixed blessing. He was concerned about the exclusion of some early documents as well as the risks involved with Christianity becoming a religion of the book. This volume engages these concerns and others with scholarly creativity. Among other topics, Harnack examines reasons for the inclusion of four gospels in the New Testament rather than one. He concludes that the selection was a compromise between dominant churches, each invested in a particular gospel. This is classic Harnack and a true picture of the thought and mind of the last great 19th century theologian.

Moreover, the Anglican church abandoned the Westminster Confession and returned to the Thirty-Nine Articles as its official confession of faith. Consequently, with the restoration of the Monarchy, the English Baptists suffered persecution for their faith. In 1677, a group of Particular Baptists met for the purpose of producing a more expansive confession than the previous Baptist confession of 1644.

The New Testament Development of Old Testament Themes

Author : F.F. Bruce

978-93-89069-21-1 | 150pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

F.F. BRUCE
The
NEW TESTAMENT DEVELOPMENT
of
OLD TESTAMENT THEMES

To understand the Old Testament themes that were fulfilled in Jesus, we need to understand Old Testament thought. F. F. Bruce reveals the context of the New Testament writers' understanding of the Old Testament by focusing on seven Old Testament themes--the rule of God over all creation, the salvation of God, the victory of God, the people of God, the son of David, the servant messiah, and the shepherd king. These and other themes, he says, are fulfilled in Jesus. Bruce's work guides us through the complexities of messianic prophecy, says Daniel Wright of Concordia University. It serves as a condensed and valuable guide to the enormity of Old Testament proclamation about the Messiah.

The Passion of Christ

Expository Sermons on Mark 14-16

Author : David Mende

978-93-89069-46-4 | 112pg | Paperback | ₹210.00

Dr. David Mende has produced this pithy collection of powerful sermons on the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ from the final three chapters of Mark's Gospel. Ministers, seminary students, and congregants from all Church traditions will benefit from this well-crafted book that cogently blends sound scriptural exegesis and practical application along with meaningful sermon illustrations. I highly recommend this book.

The Pauline Circle

Engaging Portraits of Paul's Friends, Co-workers, Hosts and Hostesses

Author : F.F. Bruce

978-93-89069-22-8 | 88pg | Paperback | ₹200.00

F.F. BRUCE

The PAULINE CIRCLE

Engaging Portraits of Paul's Friends,
Co-workers, Hosts and Hostesses

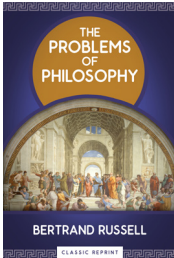

"Paul," writes F.F. Bruce, "attracted friends around him as a magnet attracts iron filings. He had that warm and outgoing kind of personality which draws out people's good will and affection." The New Testament evidence for Paul's wide circle of friends is plentiful, both in Paul's own writings and in the Book of Acts.

In each of the first ten chapters, Professor Bruce engagingly pictures one of Paul's associates: Ananias and the disciples at Damascus, Barnabas, Silas, Timothy, Luke, Priscilla and Aquila, Apollos, Titus, Onesimus, and Mark.

The Problems of Philosophy

Author : Bertrand Russell

978-81-949910-6-9 | 135pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

The Problems of Philosophy is a 1912 book by Bertrand Russell, in which Russell attempts to create a brief and accessible guide to the problems of philosophy. Focusing on problems he believes will provoke positive and constructive discussion, Russell concentrates on knowledge rather than metaphysics: If it is uncertain that external objects exist, how can we then have knowledge of them but by probability.

The Prophets Speak Today

Expository Sermons on Habakkuk and Malachi

Author : David Mende

978-93-89069-44-0 | 102pg | Paperback | ₹210.00

Like a biryani, this collection of sermons is both delightful to consume and nourishing for the soul. There's no shortage of meat here, with each sermon carefully drawing out the essence of the biblical text. Garnished with illustrations to make it enjoyable to the Indian reader, the sermons are warmly recommended for instruction and correction, for encouragement and comfort.

The Seven Sayings of the Saviour

Author : David Mende

978-81-949910-9-0 | 140pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

David Mende, an erudite scholar and pastor portrays Jesus as Savior and Lord in his scintillating sermon series, The Seven Sayings of the Savior. His expertise in exegesis, theological and linguistic depth, coupled with the historical context of the biblical passages makes his sermons engaging.

Mende's illustrations are brilliant! His greatest strength is in making the sayings of Jesus relevant to the present day so that the readers are drawn to respond to Jesus and follow him. Along with pastors, even believers, whether rural or urban, will be immensely blessed by these sermons.

The Sovereignty of God

Author : A.W. Pink

978-93-91694-57-9 | 235pg | Paperback | ₹495.00

A.W. PINK

“The Sovereignty of God” is a powerful and influential work on the power of God over every aspect of human life, from the smallest specks of dust on earth to the greatest philosophical and spiritual challenges facing mankind. Born in England in 1886, Pink was little known during his own life and struggled with the day to day realities of life as a minister. He and his family moved frequently and lived in England, America, and Australia, before finally settling in Scotland, where he spent his time studying Scripture and writing books.

The Spurgeon Anthology

Author : Charles H. Spurgeon

978-93-89069-34-1 | 308pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

Spurgeon Anthology-Prayer is the Christian’s lifeline to God, and with it, lives are changed for eternity! Charles Spurgeon knew the secrets of prayer—divine principles and promises that God established for our every need. He reveals these principles and shares how God has answered the prayers of men and women since the beginning of Bible times. This anthology includes six of Spurgeon’s classic books on prayer: The Power in Prayer; Praying Successfully; The Golden Key of Prayer; Finding Peace in Life’s Storms; Spurgeon on Praise; Satan: A Defeated Foe.

The Spreading Flame

The Rise and Progress of Christianity from Its First Beginnings to Eighth-Century England

Author : F.F. Bruce

978-93-89069-24-2 | 570pg | Paperback | ₹950.00

F.F. BRUCE
The
SPREADING
FLAME

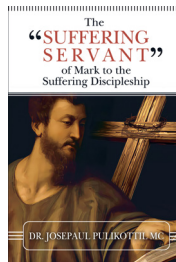

This story of the early Christian church – from its infancy to the conversion of the English in about A.D. 800 – pictures a church that is an unquenchable spiritual force organized for tribulation. Its spiritual resources are never stronger than in times of seeming disaster. Bruce gives the reader a feel for the evangelistic fervor of the Apostles and the early Christians in a narrative filled with solid, well-reasoned, richly researched facts.

The “Suffering Servant” of Mark to the Suffering Discipleship

Author : Josepaul Pulikottil

978-93-89069-23-5 | 304pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

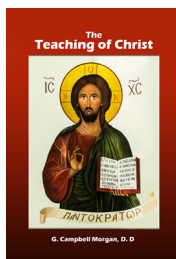

A study of the passion predictions presented in the gospel of Mark readily brings to light the way in which Jesus in his existential and social context experienced his own suffering and death.<sup>1</sup> The teaching of the prophets before the coming of Jesus prepares one to recognize God’s conclusive selfdisclosure in the person of Jesus. The Christian tradition and faith is focalized fully on the passion and death of Jesus. He becomes God’s greatest revelatory signs in human history exactly because of his resurrection – the promise he had accomplished.

TEXT BOOK

The Teaching of Christ

Author : G. Campbell Morgan

978-93-89069-38-9 | 252pg | Paperback | ₹500.00

My purpose in this series of meditations is to consider His teaching on some of the great themes of supreme interest to men, and I propose to do that in the simplest way possible. Let it be understood that we start on the assumption that the New Testament view of the Person of Christ is to be accepted as true. I am not proposing a study of the words of Jesus, in order to lead to Christ. I rather desire to lead those who have already found Christ to a study of His words.

The Temple

Its Ministry and Services

Author : Alfred Edersheim

978-81-953966-3-4 | 313pg | Paperback | ₹600.00

Jerusalem's temple represented not only the glory of Israel's past but the splendor of its future, when the Messiah would come and reign over God's people. To recapture the essence of the temple's significance, both in the life of Israel and in the life and theology of the early Christians, readers are fortunate indeed to have as a tour guide that eminent scholar of Judaism and the New Testament, Alfred Edersheim. Readers who want to experience the grandeur of Herod's temple - the temple that Jesus "cleansed" - or the anguish of a temple trodden by Roman soldiers will appreciate Edersheim's knowledge of and passion for the temple of Scripture.

The Theology of Ezekiel

In the Babylonian Captivity

Author : T. Hawiphah

978-93-91694-28-9 | 113pg | Paperback | ₹250.00

This book is a reproduction of the author's thesis written for her Master of Theology degree. The church and the people of the world today need to know why and Israel needed to be reminded once again why they were in captivity for 70 years.

It is very important to recognize sin and its consequences in our lives and that even in the midst of that, God is a merciful and covenant-keeping God. God intervenes in Israel's history and the world even today. Although he strikes, he is also a God of hope, a God who redeems and restores.

The Truth Shall Set you Free

Author : P.L. Mungno

978-93-91694-35-7 | 334pg | Paperback | ₹695.00

The book gives clear explanation for some crucial questions which many people in the world have no answer. It is obvious that writing such crucial and vital topics is not an easy task. The author relies on the Bible to furnish detail explanations of every critical point. A must have book in your shelf if you want to know more about Christianity and Jesus Christ. It will help every Christian believer to become strong in the faith. May God Bless PL Mungno and his sincere efforts to serve God and people through this book. May the grace of God be with all those who read this book.

Theology to Sing About

Author : Blake Western

978-93-89069-62-4 | 196pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

Dull. Dry. Uninteresting. Boring. Those might be some of the words Christians use when they think about theology. Actually, it is just the opposite. Theology deals with the most basic matters of faith and life. What could be more beneficial than feasting on the Word of God? Our hearts should fill with song when we think about God. Theology that makes the heart sing looks to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. We are amazed at the vast creation which shows the handiwork of God.

Trajectories of New Testament Theology

Author : C.I. David Joy

978-81-937008-1-5 | 190pg | Paperback | ₹350.00

Trajectories of New Testament Theology is a collection of essays dealing with current trends in New Testament theology and Some Preliminary Thoughts. There are detailed discussions on varied hermeneutical issues namely postcolonial cultural reconstruction and subaltern-cultural reading. Moreover there are essays on Jesus' Galilee, Johannine understanding of discipleship and Historical Jesus Research. In order to make the theories vivid, there are exegetical studies in the book such as Matthew 25:14-30 and Jude.

Things to Come

A Study in Biblical Eschatology

Author : J. Dwight Pentecost

978-81-935964-7-0 | 452pg | Paperback | ₹995.00

Because of the prominence of prophecy in Scripture, many excellent books have appeared dealing with prophetic subjects. Until recently, however, the treatment of prophecy has been either apologetic or expository, and prophetic themes have been developed individually apart from their relation to the whole revealed prophetic program. Much of our knowledge has been only fragmentary and unrelated. Dr. Dwight Pentecost's monumental text, Things to Come, has synthesized the whole field of prophecy into a unified biblical doctrine, a systematic and complete biblical eschatology.

Transforming Mission

Paradigm Shifts in Theology of Mission

Author : David J. Bosch

978-93-89069-57-0 | 656pg | Paperback | ₹900.00

Seldom does one come across a truly magisterial book.

Transforming Mission, through, is such a one. Bosch examines the entire sweep of Christian tradition to show historically how five paradigms have encapsulated the Christian understanding of how God saves and what human beings should do in response. With the considerable talents that make him the foremost theologian of Christian vocation and mission today, Bosch then outlines the key characteristics of an emerging "postmodern" paradigm dialectically linking salvation's transcendent and immanent dimension.

Tribal Religion (Revised & Expanded)

An Analysis of Religion, Beliefs and Practices

Author : M.K. Koshlining Maring

978-81-949910-2-1 | 241pg | Paperback | ₹550.00

“This book is a great in depth look at religion and it’s far reaching effects on peoples far and near as well as advanced and primitive cultures. The writer has produced a remarkable resource and has clearly outlined the dynamics of religion and its role in society. The ability to articulate the shades and forms that religion take on is a monumental task that has been accomplished in a very comprehensive form. Highlights are the way the Word of God is iterated to cement the truth of Christ’s heart; to have relationship with His creation.

Turn to God

Meditations on Hosea

Author : M. Emmanuel Koilpillai

978-81-935964-9-4 | 48pg | Paperback | ₹100.00

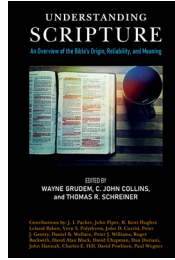

“TURN TO GOD” passionately invites us to meditate the prophetic book of Hosea. The unprecedented global scenario challenges the witness of the church. The prophetic message of Hosea alarms the present day church to turn towards God through authentic spirituality. This book primarily concentrates on Lenten season and calls out the believers to rethink their spirituality in the light of Hosea.

Understanding Scripture

An Overview of the Bible’s Origin, Reliability, and Meaning
Edited By : Wayne Grudem, C John Collins and Thomas R Schreiner

978-81-937008-5-3 | 202pg | Paperback | ₹400.00

The Bible is the most important book in the world. But questions like these puzzle believers and unbelievers alike. Editors and scholars Wayne Grudem, C. John Collins, and Thomas Schreiner recognize the challenge we all face and offer this volume to help us properly understand the Bible.

Covering a diverse range of essential subjects, including how to read the Bible well and why it is reliable, these eighteen essays delve into specific topics such as world religions, canon, and archaeology.

What Does the Bible Really Teach About Homosexuality?

Author : Kevin DeYoung

978-81-937008-6-0 | 158pg | Paperback | ₹300.00

Kevin DeYoung

In This timely book, award-winning authors Kevin DeYoung challenges each of us—the skeptic and the seeker, the certain and the confused—to take a humble look at God’s Word regarding the issue of homosexuality. After examining key biblical passages in both the Old and New Testaments and the Bible’s overarching raised by Christians and non-Christians alike, making this an indispensable resource for thinking through one of the most pressing issues of our day.

Why I Love Apostle Paul: 30 Reasons

Author : John Piper

978-81-939006-9-7 | 204pg | Paperback | ₹320.00

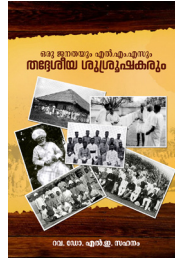

I have lived with the apostle Paul for over sixty years—admired him, envied him, feared him, pounded on him, memorized him, written poems about him, wept over his sufferings, soared with him, sunk to the brink of death with him, spent eight years preaching through his longest letter, imitated him. Ha—imitated him! In ten lives, I would not come close to his sufferings—or what he saw.

The Jerome Biblical Commentary for the Twenty-First Century

Editors : John J. Collins, Gina Hens-Piazza, Barbara Reid OP and Donald Senior CP

978-1-4742-4885-3 | 2224pg | Hardcover

The Bible is the book of the Lord's people, who, in listening to it, move from dispersion and division towards unity. The word of God unites believers and makes them one people. That is the importance and mission of biblical scholarship at the service of the community of faith, the type of scholarship exhibited in this volume of biblical commentaries. — Pope Francis, Vatican City

The Jerome Biblical Commentary has, since 1968, been essential reading for all Catholics who wish to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the Bible. It is a landmark of Catholic biblical scholarship, the first port of call for priests, preachers, students and scholars, and all those lay people who like to keep a one-volume Biblical commentary in their home to enlighten their reading of the scriptures. In this new fully revised edition, the publication of which has been welcomed by Pope Francis (who has also written the foreword), the entire content of the commentary has been revised to bring it up-to-date with the very latest scholarship, featuring the leading international Catholic scholars of our day. Whilst based on the historical critical method of Biblical study, the contributors draw in a range of more contemporary approaches to the biblical texts. The pool of contributors has also been broadened outside north America and Western Europe to include a more diverse range of perspectives, ensuring that the Jerome speaks more comprehensively to a global Church. The 'General Articles' section has been revised to include articles on new approaches to the study of the bible and on the interpretation of the bible in diverse pastoral contexts. This magnificent third edition will be essential reading for all those who possess existing editions of The Jerome; but it will also find a new generation of readers, eager to engage the scriptures within the tradition and teaching of the Church.

History of Philosophy

11 Volume Set

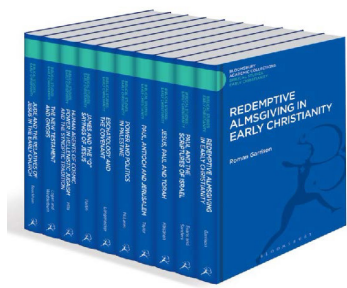

Author : Frederick Copleston

ISBN : 9780826469489 | Price : GBP 175.00 | GBP 140.00

Copleston, an Oxford Jesuit and specialist in the history of philosophy, first created his history as an introduction for Catholic ecclesiastical seminaries. However, since its first publication (the last volume appearing in the mid-1970s) the series has become the classic account for all philosophy scholars and students. The 11-volume series gives an accessible account of each philosopher's work, but also explains their relationship to the work of other philosophers.
